VOTER ENGAGEMENT SUPPORT

- 1. Train-the-trainer voter registration — We can offer one-on-one or small group trainings to people who want to do third-party voter registration events or help others register to vote.
- 2. Tabling for voter registration — Our volunteers will bring materials and set up a table to help people register to vote and answer their questions.
- 3. Get Out The Vote Organizing — We teach relational organizing centered around getting out the vote by teaching people how to effectively communicate within their personal networks.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

- 1. Fellows Network — Youth from across Maine working to increase civic engagement on their campuses.
- 2. Youth Voting Summit — A spring event where youth gather to build skills, network, and create community.
- 3. Organizers + Voting Captains — We will provide training and support for students who want to step into leadership positions.
- 4. Speakers' Bureau — Students with an interest in public speaking can join our Speakers' Bureau, which meets regularly to practice the skills needed to be an effective speaker.

FACULTY + SCHOOL SUPPORT

- 1. Curriculum — We have developed curricula and resources that you can take, modify to suit your needs, and present in your classroom.
 - + Youth Civics Education — A starting point for civic involvement.
 - + Money in Politics — An overview of issues surrounding money in politics
 - + Suffrage History — Created for the centennial, the story of women’s suffrage in the context of the fight for full enfranchisement for all people.
 - + 5 Mins for Democracy — quick powerpoint to encourage youth voting engagement
 - + Syllabus Guide for Democracy — tips on integrating civic engagement into your course
- 2. Training — We have developed a training guide for faculty who are interested in integrating democratic engagement into their classes. We are also available for 30 minute coaching sessions with faculty and will have an annual faculty meeting to further address needs and gaps in resources.
- 3. Classroom & Campus Visits — We can provide a guest speaker on a variety of topics related to democracy. These include:
 - + Maine Voting Laws

INSTITUTIONALIZATION

- 1. Campus/school action + long-term planning — We can provide our action plan template and example action plans for campuses. We are also available for action-planning consultations.
- 2. Best practices in voter engagement policies + procedures — We have put together a resource guide that highlights examples from state and national leaders in the civic engagement field and we are also available for consultation on how your campus/school can integrate voter engagement into existing policies.

COALITION BUILDING

- 1. Events
 - + Civic Holidays — We support campuses and will also host national events on Constitution Day, National Voter Registration Day, Voter Education Week, Vote Early Day, and Election Hero Day.
 - + Conferences — We host an annual Youth Voting Summit and other student-centered election engagement events.
- 2. Network Calls + Newsletter — We coordinate monthly network calls as well as a monthly newsletter that highlights civic engagement resources and events.
